Soft Coal Miners Threaten To Strike November First

Washington—John L. Lewis President of the United Mine Workers has notified the government that he considers rejection of his bid for wage negotiations would void the present government contract for soft coal miners.

Lewis' statement apparently leaves the way open for a mine shutdown on November first, in the event that the government continues to reject his request for a bargaining conference on that date.

The government has given Lewis a quick answer to his demand for re-opening of the soft coal contract. The answer is no.

Lewis was told instead to begin negotiations with private mine operators so the government could release control of the mines seized last May.

A Visit To

Bottom Fork School

On Wednesday evening Dr. P. E. Sloan, Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Nolan and Mr. Robert Blair, Health Coordinator of Schools were all visitors at the neat little Bottom Fork School to observe the good work being done by the Kellogg Foundation along with the cooperation of the County School Board. Mr. Blair who acted as chairman of the meeting of local parents and children of that community, pointed out a number of things that made for better, cleaner and more progressive schools—and emphasized the responsibility of parents and children in keeping the school that way.

The visitors all made informal talks and it was suggested that a parent-teachers association be organized. The first meeting of this nature will be held next Wednesday night.

The school building has been repainted, repaired and sanitary improvements have been added.

Bottom Fork and Pine Creek schools are selected to be the county schools to receive the special health program.

The most important cog in any community is the school—for in the schools today dwell the future of tomorrow.

Box Suppers, school programs, Lil Abner Show, and Variety shows are being staged and planned by the classes to raise funds to elect their choice.

Committees are making plans for the usual booths and program of entertainment for the grand night.

Lights For Athletic Field

The Whitesburg Athletic Association has purchased lights for the football field at a cost of approximately $5500. The Association and the Whitesburg Schools are asking the support of all patrons in the Whitesburg district toward paying for these lights. The Athletic Association has on hand $1500 to apply on this purchase and it feels confident that many of its members will make additional subscriptions.

Schools already having lighted fields find it possible for many fans to go to games that could not otherwise attend. It also makes summer softball and baseball games possible for the community.

Your donations will be greatly appreciated by the schools and the Athletic Association.

Letter of Appreciation

Mr. W. P. Nolan, Editor
The Mountain Eagle,
Whitesburg, Ky.

Dear Mr. Nolan:

I have felt for some time that the citizens of Letcher County should be informed of the assistance which we are receiving from the State Highway Department for our roads in the county and I feel that we would be very ungrateful indeed if we failed to express our appreciation to those who are responsible for this assistance. Work is already far advanced on the following roads:

Blackey hardtopping job	$114,830.00
Resurfacing all hardtop roads in the County	215,547.05
TOTAL	$330,377.05

I believe I am correct in saying that this is more money than we have received from state funds for all previous years for road purposes. This amount of course is exclusive of rural highway funds. The Rural Highway Department is required by law to spend so much each year in each county.

In addition to the above assistance I have a letter from J. Stephen Watkins, Commissioner of Highways, dated August 7th, which states in part, concerning the Cowan Creek, Kings Creek, Linefork road:

"This project is included in this year's Federal Aid secondary program. The sum of $100,000.00 has been set up for this construction.

"The date when we can get the work under way will depend upon the completion of the survey and plans, upon their approval by the Federal engineers, and upon the securing of the right-of-way by the county. You may be assured that we will do everything possible to expedite this work."

The above proposed project is on the Federal-State system, the expense of which will be borne equally by the State and Federal Government. If this project is let to contract this fiscal year it will mean that Letcher County has received during one fiscal year the sum of $430,377.05, the most of which has come from the State Highway Department at Frankfort.

I am sure the good citizens of Letcher County appreciate the help we are receiving, and I know the officials deeply appreciate it. A copy of this letter is being sent to Hon. J. Stephen Watkins, Commissioner of Highways, Frankfort, Kentucky, who is responsible for the assistance we have received.

Very truly yours,

ARTHUR DIXON,
County Judge.

Notice To Voters

It has come to our attention that some people think that because they did not vote in the primary election that they are not eligible to vote in the November election. This is not the case—the only names that were purged from the list of voters were the ones that the serving election officers knew were dead or had moved from the precincts.

All citizens who have been county voters are entitled to vote and are urged to exercise their rights. Remember your failing to vote in the primary does not disfranchise you in November if you are a registered voter.

NEWS in the WORLD of RELIGION

BY M. W. REID

Fifty-five-year-old Brooklyn-born Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill, of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts, will become the Presiding Bishop of his communion on December 31, in succession to the Rt. Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, of Virginia, who has held the office for nine years. Bishop Sherrill was an army chaplain during World War I, and is now chairman of the General Commission on Army and Navy Chaplains—the body which passes upon the qualifications of all Protestant chaplains. The new Presiding Bishop is the twentieth in the line of succession, and one of the youngest ever chosen for the office. His headquarters will be in New York City.

Cablegram from Methodist Bishops Kaung, Chen and Lacy, in China, gives to the Board of Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Church the information that the Executive Committee of the China Central Conference has postponed the sessions of that body from the fall of 1946 to the fall of 1947, so that they will coincide with the nationwide evangelistic campaign of that year which is to mark the centennial of the opening of Methodist missionary service in Foochow, in 1847. The centennial celebration will be observed through five years—marking the dates on which work was begun by the Methodist Church in various provinces of China.

"These are momentous times in India, and significant social, political, and economic changes are taking place in the country," says Principal Marvin H. Harper, of Leonard Theological College, Jubulpore, India. "The nature of the new national government, the production of food for some 400,000,000 people, the industrialization of a country predominantly rural, the education of the masses—these are some of the tremendous problems confronting India's leaders. As a consequence, the Christian church faces opportunities unparalleled in her history in India. Her whole service is to help produce a leadership worthy of these great tasks, and to undergird the whole movement with the spirit of Christ. There is truly a race on in India between Christ and communism. Many of the acts of violence which have occurred recently in India can be traced to the influence of those who work under the banner of the hammer and sickle. It is the duty of the Christian church to challenge India's workers to adopt the banner of Christ as their insignia. We at Leonard Theological College are grateful for the privilege of training Christian leaders for the new India."

"The Word of Power for the Power Age," with special emphasis on "spiritual pioneers," is the theme of the daily Bible readings recommended by the American Bible Society in this year's worldwide scripture reading period from Thanksgiving Day to Christmas Day. Last year people of 20 different nations (perhaps 20,000,000 individuals) participated in the daily readings, and it is believed the numbers will be greater this year. The readings suggested follow: Nov. 28, Gen. 8:20-9:17; Nov. 29, Gen. 12:1-9; 17:1-8; Nov. 30, Gen. 32:1-32; Dec. 1, Gen. 37; Dec. 2, Ex. 3; Dec. 3, Ruth 1; Dec. 4, I Sam. 3; Dec. 5, I Sam. 16; Ps. 139; Dec. 6, I Kings 19:9-18; Dec. 7, Neh. 6; Dec. 8, Zech. 4; Dec. 9, Is. 1:1-20; Dec. 10, Is. 52:13-53:12; Dec. 11, Jer. 1:1-2:13; Dec. 12, Dan. 6; Dec. 13, Luke 1:26-56; Dec. 14, Matt. 3:1-17; Dec. 15, John 3:1-17; Dec. 16, Luke 10:30-42; Dec. 17, Luke 15:11-24; Dec. 18, John 13:1-17; Dec. 19, John 17; Dec. 20, Acts 2; Dec. 21, Acts 6, 8:15; 7:44-60; Dec. 22, Acts 9:1-9; 13:14-43; Dec. 23, II Tim. 1:1-18; Dec. 24, Heb. 11:24-12:2; Dec. 25, Matt. 2.

"Naticence toward Russia without appeasement" is the admonition given to America by Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, of Christ Church, New York City, recently returned from a visit to Russia as head of the American Society for Russian Relief. "In our efforts to get a better understanding of Russia we feel baffled by the iron curtain," he says. "On their side, they claim to be thwarted by our misrepresentation of their facts. . . . America claims to be a Christian nation. Now is the time to show it in our relations with a nation which became disillusioned with a certain form of perverted Christianity. To be Christian, America does not need to acquiesce softly to Russia's acquisitive demands. But America to be Christian must bend every effort to sustain the godly idea of one world through strengthening the United Nations lest we drift into the devilish idea of two worlds. And let every American who calls himself a Christian turn a deaf ear to the whisper that now is the time to start dropping atomic bombs on Russia because war is inevitable. If we believe in Christ, we must believe that wars are not inevitable."

CRUSADING CALL TO SAVE THE HOMELESS

Issuing a crusading call to save the homeless, sick and starving peoples of Greece, Spyros P. Skouras, national president of the Greek War Relief Association, urged 1032 representatives from American and Canadian communities to mobilize at Chicago's Palmer House, October 19th and 20th to launch the Association's $12,000,000 fund-raising campaign.

"Only a modern crusade fought efficiently," said Skouras, "can save Greece's $375,000 war orphans, can ease the pain of 3 million stricken with malaria and tuberculosis, or feed almost 2 million stunted children. These tragic victims now depend on UNRRA, but come December—when that agency ceases relief operations—their only hope is the Greek War Relief Association. We must be ready and armed to assume many of these tasks; if we fail, Greece and her peoples face certain annihilation."

Sketching how Greek War Relief proposed meeting this challenge, he stated that "the Association would construct 40 modern rural health centers this year. These will knit the 423 community clinics and 22 mobile medical units now operated by GWRA into an efficient public health system for destroyed Greece. Funds likewise would house, feed and educate 375,000 war orphans; and provide a warm, noonday meal to more than a million malnourished school children.

Attending the two-day convention will be GWRA representatives from all over the country and 500 leaders of Greek-American societies who are meeting to coordinate their various relief efforts into GWRA's overall program. "By so channeling these efforts through GWRA," states William Helis, millionaire oilman and vice-president of Ahepa (American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association) "each society can reap the economies of a centrally-operated and controlled relief and rehabilitation program. In addition, a united appeal can be presented Americans, who when asked to give, will know where and for what their money is going."

Skouras added that plans and quotas for fund-raising would be announced at the convention. Each Greek-American community is being asked to give its contribution now in an advance solicitation campaign. In this manner, when the general drive scheduled for January and February 1947 gets underway, every American will know that the Greeks in his community have given their share. It is by this example that America can help re-build a destroyed country that knew no surrender in its heroic fight for freedom.

NEAR RECORD MILK SUPPLY AVAILABLE FOR COUNTY DIETS

Letcher County residents will consume more than 10,150,000 quarts of milk and milk products this year in maintaining the county's high nutritional standards, it was predicted today by the nation's leading distributor of dairy products.

"With a near record supply of milk coming from the nation's dairy farms, consumption of dairy products this year will nearly equal that of 1945 when more than 60,000,000 quarts were consumed," said G. W. Diehl, head of A & P Food Stores national dairy department. "A 22 per cent increase in per capita consumption of milk during the war years helped overcome the loss of nutrition caused by curtailed supplies of fats and oils and helped bring about the nation's high nutritional wartime levels."

An increased supply of most cheese products is now available in many sections of the country and other milk products are expected to be adequate during the fall and winter months, Diehl said.

These products contain nearly 14 per cent of the calories, 24 per cent of the proteins, 18 per cent of the fats, 74 per cent of the calcium and 45 per cent of the riboflavin consumed by the average individual.

The pioneering efforts of food chains in developing a streamlined distribution system, Diehl said, have made possible the quick movement of milk and milk products from dairy centers to densely populated consumer areas. Modern refrigeration equipment and improved handling methods were also cited as instrumental in maintaining the high nutritional qualities of dairy products.

Letcher County's 2,600 farms are expected to produce more than 5,900,000 quarts of milk this year.

PLANS TO PREPARE PROGRAMS FOR PROMOTING SAFETY

Danville, Ky., Oct. 21 — The National Commission on Safety Education, division of the National Educational Association, has invited Allan R. Schwartz, Assistant Professor of Education and Sociology at Centre College, to become an active member of the organization at Washington, D. C. to help prepare programs for promoting safety education in the secondary schools of the United States, it was announced here today.

The Commission's invitation early this month followed the examination of Prof. Schwartz's submitted curriculum of the subject embodied in his dissertation for his doctorate degree from New York University. Permission to publish parts of the study was also requested for use in a general campaign of safety education, it was stated.

Since coming to Centre in 1945, Professor Schwartz has been active in training Kentucky high school teachers and students in practical safety education procedure.

HOWES MEADE TO CONGRESS

"To American Citizens—"

You have suffered almost five years of short rations in sugar. How would you like a sugar shortage for five more years? You may have it!

Why? Your Government has completely controlled every phase of the sugar business since Pearl Harbor — production, distribution, and rationing. This is still true. We are no longer a "free" people in so far as sugar is concerned.

Because of heavy shipments of sugar to foreign nations, Americans this year will receive only 73 pounds of refined sugar per person as compared with their prewar consumption of 98 pounds.

Yugoslavia, whose belligerence towards Americans is all too well known, secured tens of thousands of tons of sugar through the UNRRA this year—with the approval and aid of our Government.

Plans are proposed to continue the American people on a sugar shortage for years to come. Howard R. Tolley, formerly of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, now Director of the Division of Economics and Statistics of the Food and Agricultural Organization of the UN, has just proposed a program for sharing our sugar supply with other nations for years to come.

The Tolley program is not a famine relief program. It is a plan to raise the normal consumption of sugar in other countries at the expense, and through the sacrifice, of the people of the United States.

Specifically, Tolley proposes that by the year 1950 the total American supply of sugar (and syrups) should be depressed by 12 6-10 per cent under the total pre-war consumption. And this despite the fact that our population in 1950 is expected to be 13,500,000 more than in 1940.

The Tolley plan would keep you on a wartime basis years after the peace. How would you like that?

Sugar is indispensable for a well-balanced American diet. Without it you would not have most of the canned foods and preserves, a large amount of canned milk, ice cream, candy, soft drinks, cakes and pies, and many other foods. Most cereals and many fresh fruits are unpalatable without sugar. Millions of Americans today are obliged to use saccharine (a coal tar product having no food value) in their coffee.

Millions of dollars worth of fruits in the United States have gone to waste because of sugar shortage. Farming communities have suffered not only the loss of fruit but the food values that the canned or preserved fruit would have given.

Housewives cannot prepare satisfactory meals or do their baking without an adequate supply of sugar.

Labor in the food processing industry has been thrown out of work because of the sugar shortage.

Sugar has been dished out liberally by our Government to foreign nations who normally do not secure their supplies in the Western Hemisphere. In many cases you are paying the bill for the sugar you did not get but which went elsewhere.

This year the United States Government approved the allocation of hundreds of thousands of tons of sugar from our sources of supply for movement abroad. Some of this sugar went to countries behind the so-called "Iron Curtain". Although we pray most fervently to the contrary, shipping sugar and other materials into countries behind that "Iron Curtain" could be the same thing as our sending scrap iron and oil to Japan in the days before World War II.

Relief for famine is one thing. But appeasement never succeeds whether the appeased is friend or foe.

The total production of sugar in 1947 in those areas normally supplying the United States will be tremendous—over 9,000,000 tons. How much of it will you get? And how much will our Washington bureaucrats send to other shores.

The question before the American people today is whether our sugar supplies should

138,000 Boys & Girls
To Get School
Lunches This Year

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 23 — At least 138,000 Kentucky boys and girls will get school lunches under the cooperative National School Lunch Program this year, G. S. Dudley, Acting State Director of the Production and Marketing Administration, announced today. These children are attending 906 public and non-profit private schools.

This is the first year of operation of the program under the permanent school lunch legislation signed by the President last June, Dudley said. The program has operated on a year-to-year basis in Kentucky since 1943, he added.

Agreements covering operation of the National School Lunch Program have been signed by the Department of Agriculture and the State Agency designated by the Governor in all of the 48 states, the District of Columbia and the territories, Secretaries of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson announced recently. It is estimated that in the nation eight million children attending more than 45,000 schools will get lunches under the program this year.

Commenting on the fact that all States and territories will participate this year, Secretary Anderson said:

"Through the National School Lunch Act, Congress outlined a broad policy of assisting the States in seeing that our children get adequate and nutritious lunches which will build their health and lead to better food habits. It also recognized the basic principles of improving farm income by providing wider outlets for farm production, at the same time improving the national health.

"We, in the Department of Agriculture are gratified that the program will be truly national in scope, even in this first year under the new legislation. The basic framework for operations has been established. It is now up to the States and local communities to provide the understanding and support which will develop the program's full potentialities.

"As President Truman said when he signed the new Act, 'In the long view, no nation is any healthier than its children or any more prosperous than its farmers; and in the National School Lunch Act the Congress has contributed immeasurably both to the welfare of our farmers and the health of our citizens'."

Before this year, funds for the school lunch program have been authorized on a year-to-year basis. Under the new Act, the Department of Agriculture will be in position to allot funds each year, under provisions for matching funds from the States. This will make possible effective long time planning.

The funds available for this school year have already been allocated. In view of the fact that even more schools have expressed a desire to participate in the program this year, demand for expansion of coverage in the future is anticipated by officials of the Department.

U. S. Must Mobilize
For Peace Says
Pontiac Manager

Detroit, Mich. — The United States must mobilize for peace just as it did for war, Harry J. Klinger, general manager of the Pontiac Motor Division and vice president of General Motors Corporation, declared today. He spoke before the Pontiac Rotary Club in one of a series of reports to local groups.

"If we could fight and win against the very real dangers of war, why, then, cannot we band together now against the slow strangulation which is upon us?" Mr. Klinger asked. "Only production can give us the things we want and need. Only production can determine good wages and fair prices. I think we must stand up and be heard or lie down and be buried."

"Our absenteeism is higher than it ever has been, and employee turnover is at an all-time high. Steady work on the part of the employee, and sticking to one job, seems to have become an old fashioned idea."

"We don't know this year how many of our employees will be working during the deer hunting season and the bird season, but I will make a guess that unless things have changed, we may have a high percentage of our normal force off the job at that time."

The automobile is perhaps the most diversified article in the world to manufacture and as a result, production is affected by work stoppages in any section of the country, Mr. Klinger said. He cited the following materials used by the automobile industry in a normal year:

7,500,000 gross tons of steel; 500,000 tons of malleable iron; 1,000,000 tons of gray iron; about 20,000,000 tires as original equipment; 120,000,000 sq. ft. of plate glass; 400,000,000 board feet of hardwood lumber; 15,000,000 sq. ft. of upholstery leather; 20,000 tons of aluminum; 150,000 tons of copper; 15,000 long tons of tin; 320,000 tons of zinc and lead; 20,000,000 lbs. of nickel; 750,000 bales of cotton; 7,000,000 lbs. of mohair; 500,000,000 board feet of soft wood lumber; 50,000,000 yards of cloth upholstery and as many pounds of hair and padding; 17,000,000 gallons of paints and lacquers.

"Thus, it can be seen that so far as the automobile industry is concerned, there is no such thing as an isolated strike. It is too large and important a part of the American economy which might be compared to the highly co-ordinated human body. An infection in one place can spread and frequently does, making the entire body sick. And the period of convalescence is sometimes longer than we think."

RELIGIOUS GROUPS TO SUPPORT USO

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 14—The major religious groups of Kentucky will join forces this week-end and next in support of the USO, whose six member agencies represent America's three leading faiths—Protestant, Catholic and Jewish, Dr. Raymond F. McLain, campaign chairman, said today.

Priests, ministers and rabbis in churches and synagogues throughout the State are urged to encourage their congregations to support the USO campaign to raise the funds needed to continue USO activities through 1947 for the 1 1-2 million men still in service, the 199,000 still in hospitals, and the youths now entering the armed forces.

Religious agencies incorporated in the USO are the Young Men's Christian Association, the National Catholic Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Young Women's Christian Association, the National Jewish Welfare Board and the non-sectarian National Travelers Aid Association.

"USO is a great example of inter-faith cooperation," declared Dr. McLain. "In the USO, Catholics, Protestants and Jews have come together, faced common problems and worked together. But these problems which USO has been working on during the past five years are still with us. There are still veterans in hospitals, still inductees, leaving their homes, still service men overseas—all needing USO in 1947. That's why we must give, and give all we can, to the present USO drive and to USO drives federated with Community Chests."

Mud-Dust-Snow Menace Country Roads

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21—Country roads are menaced the year round when they are without all-weather surface, Charles M. Upham, engineer-director, American Road Builders' Association, pointed out in speaking to a group of county highway officials at ARBA headquarters here today.

Mud in the Spring and Fall, dust in Summer and snow in Winter greatly reduce the efficiency of the vital "life lines" between America's 6,000,000 farms and the cities they feed. Yet only 49 per cent of the nation's 1,928,000 miles of rural roads have such surfaces, Mr. Upham stated.

"Snow is one element that does not affect the entire country, but in those states that have no snow removal problem, highway officials must contend with mud during the Winter months," Mr. Upham went on. "It is essential that snow be removed at once to allow the mail, school buses, milk deliveries and other processes to go on unimpeded. Snowbound highways also affect the community in an economic way through lowered gas revenues, held up store deliveries, damaged cars and other ways. In the Northern states, snow is an important matter on secondary roads."

"Dust is not only annoying to the farmer and the hay-fever sufferer—it is an added expense," the engineer-director continued. "Road studies show that it costs .78 of a cent per mile more to drive over a highway which lacks treatment against dust. This is figured in extra gas, extra tires, additional upkeep and other items. If a farm car and truck travel 15,000 miles a year, the farmer has an item of $117.00 for which he can blame his dusty road."

Mud which cuts off the farm from the rest of the world can be the greatest menace of all, Mr. Upham held. Figures available during the war which have undergone little change to date were cited to show that 1,637,000 miles of roads in the United States were unsurfaced. "This means that at a certain time of the year they are impassable," declared the speaker. He went on to say that of the total, 653,000 were graded and drained, 752,000 miles were unimproved, and 232,000 miles were primitive trails.

"From these appalling figures, it will be seen that many thousand rural dwellers can be actually marooned during certain seasons of the year by the three highway menaces of mud, dust and snow. In planning primary highways and urban improvements, the plight of those who live on should be remembered," Mr. Upham concluded.

U. K. BAND "BEST IN DIXIE"

Back in 1936, an Atlanta sports scribe—subtly criticizing the poor showing of a visiting football team—tagged the accompanying University of Kentucky marching band as "The Best Band in Dixie." The title has become traditional in describing the U. K. musical aggregation. This year's band has 88 pieces, a sponsor, two drum majors and four majorettes.

Whitesburg Yellow Jackets Tie With Hazard Bull Dogs

The Yellow Jackets gave the Letcher County football fans their money's worth on Friday night on the flood-lighted field of the Hazard team when they held the Bull Dogs to a 0-0 score. There were about 300 fans from Letcher County who drove down for the game, which was most exciting and thrilling from the first whistle to the end of the last quarter. Some one said the quarters went by like short minutes. The most exciting period of the game was when the Bull Dogs were within six inches of their goal and the Yellow Jackets held them, preventing a touchdown. Whitesburg team played the best game of the season, holding that line, completing forward passes and making end runs and good kick offs. Although they did not score they really played foot ball. The next game will be played on Thursday night at Williamson West Virginia, against Belfry High School. Two more games conclude the Yellow Jackets Season, one with Fleming and one with Jenkins.

80-Year-Old Lady's Rheumatic Pains Go! She Praises Rhu-Aid

Recently an 80-year-old lady living near here stated that she almost suffered death with rheumatic pains in her whole right side. When she tried to walk she would simply flinch with agony and says she had become just a "bundle of nerves" due to her long period of suffering. She bought all kinds of medicines but nothing seemed to work on her until she got Rhu-Aid. She states she was amazed at the results when she got this medicine. Now the rheumatic pains have gone from her entire right side. She can walk without suffering for the first time in years and says her nerves are "strong as steel." She feels like a new woman.

RHU-AID is the new liquid formula containing three valuable medical ingredients. These Three Great Medicines, all blended into one, go right to the very cause of rheumatic and neuritic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! EAST KENTUCKY BEVERAGE COMPANY, Hazard, Ky

My job for Kentucky's newspapers is like that of a sorghum maker who boils barrels of cane juice down to gallons of molasses. I am supposed to reduce voluminous information to brief and simple articles that can be read in five to ten minutes and digested as readily. So that is what I am doing with the Committee for Kentucky's report on farm housing. And, being a farmer myself, I am going to give you the story, not from the viewpoint of a learned investigator employed by the Committee, but from the angle of a guy who wears brogans and corduroys six days a week and is familiar with all kinds of country houses, from shacks unfit for human habitation to homes with electric lights, running water, bathrooms and refrigerators.

Statistics show that rural Kentucky does not need a big increase in the number of houses, because residences on farms usually correspond to the number of families in the country. What we need is better houses. And the main task of all rural betterment agencies is not to treat farm housing from an academic standpoint at all but to work from the ground, as it were.

The Committee for Kentucky's survey, dividing the state into nine districts, shows that about 40 per cent of the rural homes in the State are in need of repairs. Twenty-four per cent should be enlarged. That many are overcrowded.

Dean Thomas P. Cooper, Dr. J. Allen Smith, and Dr. H. W. Beers are responsible for the rural housing report to the Committee, and I would say Dean Cooper and his Experiment Station staff are in a position to spread the gospel of better farm housing. Field, county, and home demonstration agents can reach farmers more effectively than anybody else, unless it is daily and weekly newspapers in agricultural counties.

If I know farmers, the most effective reasoning they will listen to is self-interest. Most of them are none too altruistic. Convenience them that letting their tenant houses or their own homes run down means an increasing annual loss, whereas repair work, which in many instances they can do themselves, is a paying investment, and you will get action.

Even the tightfistedest farmer you ever knew will repair his houses if you convince him that neglecting them throws him for a loss.

Organized help for outside can only help to finance repairs or to make building supplies available. In a plan of action offered by J. E. Stanford, secretary of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, suggests exploring the possibilities of mass production of model farm houses. That's splendid. But farmers must get the notion in their heads to build or repair before anything will be done, and the State's many county farm bureaus are in a good position to carry on a campaign of education.

Self-interest, self-interest! That's the most impelling of all motives.

I'd rather have Fingers than Toes, I'd rather have Eyes than a Nose; And as for my Hair I'm glad it's all there, I'll be awfully sad when it goes."

Do We Need A New State Constitution?

We Are Living Under 1946 Conditions and By An 1891 Constitution; Complicated to Live Under, Complicated Even to Revise.

Every four years the people of the United States elect a President; every two years they elect members of Congress; but in Kentucky there is an election every November without fail. Why should we have twice as many general elections in Kentucky as in other states? The answer lies in a peculiar provision of our state constitution, which does not permit state and local officials to be elected in the same years as Federal officials. This means twice as many trips to the polls for individual voters, and twice as much expense to the taxpayer in holding elections.

In November this year, Kentucky voters will choose one Senator and nine members of the House of Representatives to speak for them in Washington on vital questions of jobs, peace, prices, strikes, control of atomic energy, and many other problems. A year later, in November 1947, the voters of Kentucky will have a chance to express their opinion on the need for a new state constitution.

Civil War Laws

Our present state constitution was adopted in 1891. Most of its framers spent their formative years before the Civil War, and wrote into the document provisions that were out of date almost as soon as they were adopted. It is filled with detailed restrictions which hamper the transaction of modern state business in an efficient manner.

One of the many obsolete provisions has to do with the suffrage. Voting by women is not recognized by our state constitution, despite the fact that they have been voting for more than 25 years. On the other hand, local poll taxes may be levied against men but not against women!

A large number of public officials must be elected by popular vote, and are ineligible for a second consecutive term. This probably reaches its greatest absurdity in connections with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals. Why should the highest court in the State be forbidden to appoint its own clerk and to continue his services as long as he does a satisfactory job? Even in the case of the office of Governor, the recent primary elections in Georgia give us an object lesson in the peculiar results that this kind of constitutional restrictions may have. Arnall could not enter the race because he is the present Governor, but Talmadge could enter and win although he has already served several terms as Governor.

Duplicate Offices

The Kentucky state constitution limits the Court of Appeals to seven judges, although the federal constitution leaves the number of U. S. Supreme Court justices to decision by Congress. Seven judges cannot cope with the amount of work coming to the Court of Appeals, and it is necessary to establish "commissioners" who do practically the same work as the judges.

Obsolete restrictions on salaries and debt make it impossible to operate in an economical and effective way. A quaint but harmless relic of another day requires state officials and all members of the bar to take an oath that they have not fought or otherwise participated in a duel. All this and many other useless and harmful restrictions make our state constitution five times as long as that of the United States.

Balky Revision

The attempt to fasten the ideas of 1890 on the state forever is nowhere better shown than in the difficult and complicated revision procedure. Action by the legislature on two separate occasions is necessary before the question can even be submitted to the people. This has now been done and the vote will be taken in November 1947. If a majority of those voting on the proposition are in favor, and if such affirmative vote equals at least 25 per cent of the total vote cast in the election of 1946, the General Assembly of the 1948 is supposed to provide for the calling of a constitutional convention, with the delegates to be elected in November, 1949.

Unless next year's referendum, is favorable, therefore, it will be a very long time indeed before the people of Kentucky can have an adequate state constitution.

—League of Women Voters.

Prayer For Peace

An air of apprehension—forebodings about the future—grips nations today. People looking at their leader's stalemate exclaim, "What next? Must God heal our every fear? Cannot men under Divine guidance do their part?"

Multitudes in their mad scramble for pleasure, money or trivialities of life, fail to heed the red signals, "Stop," "Think," "Pray." The motives of life have gotten out of control of man alone, only God can bring order and harmony out of present chaos. If enough people will reverently pray for Peace—for Christ's spirit to rule this world—our prayers will bear practical fruit.

Every soldier, his wife, parents, and every prospective soldier's parents, surely desire peace; they will do well to offer up prayers. "Worthy Jesus, Son of God; Oh, Come soon and rule this world."

—Marvin Bauer, Mitchell, S. D.

Milk Between Meals Is a Stimulus to Growth and Health

Chicago, Oct. 21—Research is proving increasingly that between-meal feeding of milk—which long has been a question with physicians and dietitians—is not injurious to appetite but actually is a stimulus to growth and better health, according to Milton Hult, president of the National Dairy Council.

Comprehensive scientific evidence, he declares, was obtained in an extended program of experiments, carried on by Dr. Irving J. Wolman, concerning the feeding habits of 59 children in a convalescent home.

"Both pasteurized and homogenized milk were used in the five months of Dr. Wolman's experimentation," said Mr. Hult, "and the findings completely contradict the old idea that giving a child a 10:30 glass of milk at school handicaps his luncheon appetite.

"Dr. Wolman's own words are of high value to every mother. He says:

"Neither of the two sets of experiments furnished any evidence that the taking of milk between meals interfered with the child's eating on his next regular meal. In fact . . . milk given before meals proved highly acceptable and seemed to be utilized metabolically by the experimental subject as a sort of dietary bonus.

"The data indicated . . . that it is wise to make available such extra servings whenever there is a need for improving a child's nutritional status for food intake."

BABE RUTH IS CONVINCED!

Preston, the Magician and Hypnotist is shown above as he convinced Babe Ruth that his hypnotism was the "real McCoy." Babe is sitting on the suspended body of a subject to test the rigidity of his body.

Preston will appear in person with his world-famous mystery show at the Jenkins High School Auditorium, Friday November 1st, 8:00 p. m., Eastern time.

The highlight of Preston's superb show is his demonstration of hypnotism, in which he actually hypnotizes volunteer subjects on the stage.

The program is given for the benefit of the school band and is truly a show you can't afford to miss.

It's not that we don't love our work!

WE DO LOVE our work—but these days, we almost dread leaving home and going to our showroom.

So many people want new Packards, and there are so few coming through!

But you can't build cars without materials!

The factory is straining every effort to get more parts and material so production can be increased.

We're doing our best!

Some cars have been shipped with wooden bumpers, some without window regulator handles. This costs the factory a lot of money, for it means that replacements must be shipped and installed later.

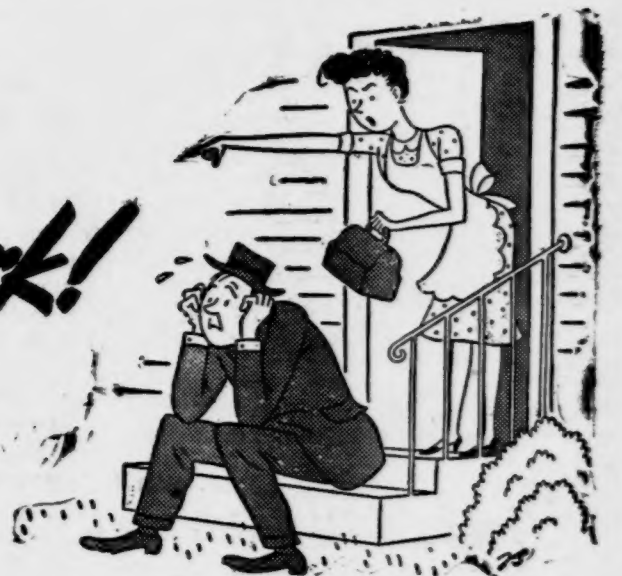

Under such difficulties, it's a wonder the folks at the factory have done as well as they have. This year, compared to the same period of 1941, Packard has built a higher percentage of cars than the industry as a whole.

We don't dare predict!

Our customers have been so patient that we'd like to sound some optimistic note.

ASK THE MAN WHO OWNS ONE

But word from Detroit says that parts and materials are still scarce. Steel continues to be limited. Shortages of lead, copper and other materials are looming up.

Scrap iron has been so scarce that Packard started the ball rolling on a nation-wide collection drive!

Take care of your present car!

Until you're sure of getting a new one, give your present car the best of care.

Lots of cars are running better and lasting longer because our trained mechanics have serviced them right. Give us a chance to catch those little troubles before they grow up into big ones.

Bring your car in any time. We're short on new cars, but we're long on helpful, car-saving service.

So he's an electric eel, so watt?

All right, then, he r-e-e-l-y isn't an eel at all, if you want to be technical. His name's Electrophorus (Gymnotus) Electricus - Jim for short. He's a South American cousin of the carp and catfish.

Maybe Jim does pack a wallop of 600 volts when he's hungry, or annoyed (and he has a shocking temper!) - BUT -

Can he wash 3 tubs of clothes?

Or tell the correct time for 4 days?

Or light a hundred-watt bulb for 3 hours - for a penny?

You bet he can't. He's not usefully eel-ctrified. Frankly, you'd better flip a switch if you want convenient, dependable electricity - all you need - at low cost.

And speaking of low cost - did you know that the average family is getting twice as much electricity for its money as it did 20 years ago? That's no accident - like Jim and his temperamental voltage. Folks in this company have done a good job under sound business management. That's why your electric service is lower in cost - and higher in efficiency - than ever before.

Floodlights for the Jenkins Ball Park

The project to raise $12,000 to provide floodlights for the ball park in Jenkins has the enthusiastic financial support of individuals, organizations, and businesses in the area.

Floodlights will permit high school football games, baseball games, boxing matches and other such activities to be held at night. This will automatically make them highly successful and will greatly increase the attendance and the income of the teams or organizations that stage the shows.

It is understood that four-fold drive will shortly be made to raise the funds. This drive will be for contributions from (1) public individuals, (2) businesses in the area, (3) sums raised in various ways by such organizations as Kiwanis, V. F. W., American Legion, Masons, United Mine Worker Locals, and others, and (4) by money raising shows, boxing matches, etc.

Sandlick Homemakers

The Sandlick Homemakers met Oct. 2nd for a very interesting program.

The main project was repairing spring cushions. This was a very interesting and instructive lesson, very ably demonstrated by Mrs. Mullins, in which an old warped, sagging cushion was made into a thing of usefulness and beauty.

Many simple ideas were gleaned and it is a joy to learn to do things so easy and inexpensive.

Our Homemakers display at the fair was simple and well arranged.

Various articles of handwork, canned food, food products, things made and used in the home were exhibited.

We were pleased to win first prize. Our next meeting will be Nov. 6th with our new President—Mrs. Beryl Mullins.

Increased Rates Essential To Good Telephone Service

Your telephone rate is low and your Telephone Company wants to keep it a small part of your operating expenses.

While telephone rates generally are lower today than 15 or more years ago, the total cost of furnishing telephone service to our Kentucky customers has steadily increased. Since 1939 expenses have advanced 118 per cent while revenues increased only 88 per cent.

Telephone wage rates in Kentucky have been raised during the past 18 months by $2,162,573 on an annual basis. The cost of erecting buildings has jumped 75 to 100 per cent, the cost of providing telephone facilities 45 to 60 per cent, and the cost of telephone materials 15 to 25 per cent. Fact is, all our expenses have been climbing so fast that the amount of money paid out to provide service is increasing faster than the amount taken in. Telephone earnings today are the lowest in our history in face of a record volume of business.

Southern Bell has applied to the Kentucky Public Service Commission for an increase in local service rates to help meet this condition. Authority is also being sought for an increase of 5 cents on most long distance calls within the state. The Commission will hold a hearing November 7 at Frankfort, Kentucky, on this application.

We want rates no higher than necessary to provide everyone with good service and expand it. We believe you feel the same way, even if the cost is somewhat more, because the business and social welfare of this community depends on adequate telephone service.

Polly-Blair Formal Wedding at Presbyterian Church

The wedding of Miss Geraldine Polly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Polly, Mayking, and Mr. Jack Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Blair, Whitesburg, formerly of Lexington took place at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in the chapel of the Graham Memorial Presbyterian Church, the Rev. J. S. Robinson, officiating in the single ring ceremony.

Rhododendron, palms, large baskets of white chrysanthemums and seven branched candelabra formed the background for the candle-lit ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. E. L. Farinash played a medley of wedding music and Miss Jean Polly sang, "Always" and "Till the End of Time."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of white net, made with a full skirt, over satin, falling into a long train. The bodice and long sleeves which came to a point over the hands, were made of duchess lace. Her finger tip veil of net was held by a crown, adorned with seed pearls. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

The bride was attended by Miss Lola Blair, cousin of the groom, who was gowned in blue, made with tight bodice, bouffant skirt, short cap sleeves, and her bandeau was of yellow pompons, and she carried a French bouquet of the same flowers. The bridesmaids were Misses Margie Slemple, Betty Slemple, Pauline Amburgey, Mildred Basham, Mildred Collins and Laraine Winn, who wore identical gowns of pink, their bandeaux were of lavender pompons, and they carried French bouquets of the same flowers.

Mr. Donald Frost, cousin of the bride, was the best man, and Messrs E. L. Farinash and Archie Craft were ushers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. A beautiful wedding cake, decorated with miniature bride and groom, was cut by them, and served with punch. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Blair left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. Before returning to Whitesburg to make their home, they will take a trip through the South also.

The bride is a graduate of Whitesburg High School and Pikeville Business School. She has been employed for three years by Consolidation Coal Company, Jenkins.

The groom is a graduate of Picadome High School, Lexington, and attended University of Kentucky. A Veteran, he served in the signal corps for three years, one of which was in the South Pacific.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Albert Jones gave a program of nuptial music, and Miss Virginia Vermillion and Mrs. Jones sang, "At Dawning."

The home was decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums with a tall basket before the improvised altar, which was a bridal arch made of ivy and orange blossoms. The bride was lovely in a turquoise wool dress with brown accessories and her shoulder corsage was of white rosebuds.

Mrs. Jimmie Dixon of Lexington, the bride's sister, was her only attendant. She was attired in pale pink wool jersey dress and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mr. Henry Addington served as best man.

A reception was given following the ceremony. The table had a low arrangement of pomponchrysanthemums and was centered with a wedding cake. Assisting in entertaining were Miss Hester Day, Miss Mabel Mercer, Mrs. Otis Amburgey and Miss Virginia Vermillion.

The bride attended Morehead State Teacher's College and has been employed by the Letcher County School Board.

Mr. Setzer attended Bowling Green Business University. A Veteran, he served four years in the U. S. Marine Corps. He is now in the Public Accounting Service in Whitesburg.
